How to obtain a Georgia voter identification card

If you do not have one of the six acceptable forms of photo ID, Georgia offers a free voter identification card. An identification card can be issued at any county registrar's office or Department of Driver Services Office free of charge. To receive a voter identification card, the voter must provide:

- A photo identity document or approved non-photo identity document that includes full legal name and date of birth
- Documentation showing the voter's date of birth
- Evidence that the applicant is a registered voter
- Documentation showing the applicant's name and residential address

What to bring: ID forms

Voters must bring one of these six forms of identification to vote:

- Any valid state or federal government-issued photo ID, including a free voter ID card issued by your county registrar's office or the Georgia Department of Driver Services
- A Georgia driver's license, even if expired
- Valid employee photo ID from any branch, department, agency or entity of the U.S. government, Georgia or any county, municipality, board, authority or other entity of this state
- Valid U.S. passport ID
- Valid U.S. military photo ID
- Valid tribal photo ID
